

G.D.GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL

Subject: S.ST

Dated : 07-04-21(Wednesday)

Topic: Unity in Diversity

Aspect: Notebook Work

This material is not to be printed.

Instructions for students:

• Based on the understanding of the topic attempt exercise C on page no 9 of the book in your notebook and use the answers given below for self-correction.

Give long answers for the following questions.

Q 1: What is culture?

Answer : The culture of a society means its ideas, customs, beliefs, religion, music and dance. The food habits of people, the festivals they celebrate, the clothes they wear, their handicraft are also a part of the culture. Culture also includes shared patterns of behaviour and group identity.

Q 2: Which are the two main schools of Indian classical music? What is the Gharana tradition?

Answer : There are two main schools of Indian classical music;

- 1. The North Indian school is called the Hindustani .
- 2. The South Indian school is called the Carnatic.

Gharana basically refers to the place where the musical ideology originated.

Gharana tradition means the tradition when a consistent style and method of music,singing or playing musical instruments is passed on from one generation to another over three or more generations.

For example;Vocal Gharana,Dance Gharana etc.